

BOOK REPORT

The title of my book is “The Emperor’s Code” – The 39 Clues series. The author is Gordon Korman. The setting takes place in the forbidden city somewhere in China. The main characters of the story are Dan, his sister Amy, and Nellie. The story is about Dan getting lost and kidnapped by Kabras in China. Dan can’t find Amy or Nellie and then he finds one of his cousin’s. His name is Jonah Wizard. Amy and Dan find out that their parents are Madrigals. Which they believe are evil people. Throughout the story they look for Dan and the clues. On their travels they find each other and the clue which is a secret potion on Mount Everest. I would recommend this book to a friend. I really enjoyed it. But I would recommend that they should read the first seven books first.
